Are you TEST-READY?

Always take notes in class and review your notes every day. Study your notes daily and you will have learned the information before the date of the exam.

“Memorization” may be temporary but what you “learn” is yours to keep!

Mrs. Kathy Guerra recommends “The Mists of Avalon” by Zimmer Bradley.

Amazon.com Review published the following:

“Even readers who don't normally enjoy Arthurian legends will love this version, a retelling from the point of view of the women behind the throne. Morgaine and Gwenhwyfar struggle for power, using Arthur as a way to score points and promote their respective worldviews. The Mists of Avalon's Camelot politics and intrigue take place at a time when Christianity is taking over the island-nation of Britain; Christianity vs. Faery, and God vs. Goddess are dominant themes. Young and old alike will enjoy this magical Arthurian reinvention by science fiction and fantasy veteran Marion Zimmer Bradley.” -Bonnie Bouman
