

JOHN A. FERGUSON HIGH SCHOOL
FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA
FBLA CREED

- I believe education is the right of every person.
- I believe the future depends on mutual understanding and cooperation among business, industry, labor, religious, family and educational institutions, as well as people around the world. I agree to do my utmost to bring about understanding and cooperation among all of these groups.
- I believe every person should prepare for a useful occupation and carry on that occupation in a manner that brings the greatest good to the greatest number.
- I believe every person should actively work toward improving social, political, community, and family life.
- I believe every person has the right to earn a living at a useful occupation and that this right should not be denied because of race, color, creed, sex, or handicap.
- I believe every person should take responsibility for carrying out assigned tasks in a manner that brings credit to self, associates, school, and community.
- I believe I have the responsibility to work efficiently and to think clearly. I promise to use my abilities to make the world a better place for everyone.

Future Business Leaders of America is for high school students interested in a business or business-related career. It is an opportunity for students to participate in business-related competitive events, network with students across the county, state, and country. FBLA offers students and opportunity to develop leadership skills, expand their creativity and become ethical, responsible adults capable of succeeding in the business world.

What is Business? Well look all around you. Businesses are everywhere you look. Can you think of any career that is not a business?

Be a leader and join John A. Ferguson's FBLA. Get in at the top, set the chapter's goals, earn community service hours and lead by example. You are the Class of 2007, John A. Ferguson's first graduating class. Make your mark and join today.
